Speaker and Founder of Happy Place Leadership and Chief Executive Officer of A Legal Crook Productions, Inc. Terri has transformed the lives of women globally by empowering them to get their second win (d). Terri's courage and determination has inspired audiences worldwide and helped countless audiences break through to discover their untapped talents and infinite potential.

Happy Place Leadership is exactly what it says, leading with contentment. It is recognizing weaknesses, maximizing strengths, and growing leaders at all levels to lead with confidence including "leading one's own life" from a happy place. One can't lead from a happy place unless they are in a happy place.

Terri is the author of "It's Only Half Time - Your Playbook to your Second Win (d)" published by Mynd Matters Publishing. She continues the journey with her audience by providing a clear and practical blueprint for personal success.

Terri's extraordinary story of transforming her own life from mismanagement of self, money, time, career and relationships is the inspiration behind her mission to teach others that it is possible to do the same.

As a Career Coach, Terri is respected for her mastery of teaching people how to accomplish immeasurable goals and tap into their limitless potential by redesigning a plan to move out of their comfort zone into their calling zone through speaking engagements, and workshops.

Terri's engaging personality and interactive style have captivated intimate audiences of 50-100 and fascinated large crowds of over 1000.

A noted media personality who has appeared on stages with renowned speakers such as Arun Gandhi, the grandson of Mahatma Gandhi, Ed Bacon, one of Oprah's Super Soul Sunday Conversationalists, May McCarthy International Speaker, and Business Strategist, Cathy Hughes of Radio One, Dr. Gwendolyn Goldsby Grant, Psychologist and former contributing writer for Essence Magazine as well as Les Brown, International Speaker and Trainer, as one of his platinum speakers.
